Dedication Mr. Richard J. Kropp

For four years, our class has had a concerned and dedicated grade administrator. In those years of growth and change, it was good to have someone standing by to help. With greatest appreciation from the class of '75.

"Climb every mountain,
Search high and low,
Follow every byway,
Every path you know . . ."

Our eyes are turned toward the future;
But we will not forget the times
we leave behind . . .

for what we are to become depends very much on what we are now —

what we do,

what we think,

what we dream.

Each of us has a special hope for the future, an ideal, different from all others . . .

But the joy of fulfilling that dream will be the same for us all.

CLAYTON J. WHITE

Freshman year . . . meeting new people, making new friends.

We were afraid of the big seniors, of the bigger administrators
. . . and even of ourselves.

In spite of it all, we got through that year . . .

and then we were rough-and-tough sophomores.

That year, we ruled North High from 12:30 to 5:30, and thought we had conquered overcrowding.

We grew up fast . . . boy, did we grow up fast!

Junior year passed quickly, and suddenly . . .

We were seniors (big, bad seniors). Nobody pushed us around!

Then before we knew it, the fun was over, our plans were made . . . but we will always remember that magnificent, stupendous, fantasmagorical class of '75. (Please feel free to give yourselves a hand).

Community

The program, unique in the Framingham area for its approach and the number of students involved, makes education a "community thing." Students work in elementary schools, in programs for children with special needs, in hospitals, nursing homes, day care centers, etc.

WKOX TROPHY

This year's cross country team, captained by senior Tom Davitt and Junior Bill Bove, started off with a big win against cross-town rival South to retire the WKOX trophy. However, unforeseen casualties intervened to create problems. Despite the injuries, members of the team put their legs together to earn respect for the school.

Coach H. Lufkin

Co-Captain Peggy Day

This was the first year for a swim team here at North. With great coaching by Mrs. Heather Lufkin, they had a successful season, a winning 4-3 record. Just goes to show that a lot of team spirit and hard work have beaten the odds. Looking forward to better seasons in years to come.

Coach Minnini and Manager Marshall.

In their first year the North High swim team had a successful 4-6 season, which can be accredited to the overwhelming turnout of talented swimmers. School records were established by John Snook, Andy Bennett, Co-capt. Barry Bennett, Rick Liner, Co-capt. Bruce Lerner, and Mark Batzer, in a total of eleven events. The entire team has done an excellent job and will surely add to the future success of North High's newest sport.

This year's soccer team was, despite a below five hundred finish, offensively explosive and exciting to watch. Co-Captains Kurtz and Egasti led the young Spartans to a respectable fourth place finish in a tough Bay State League.

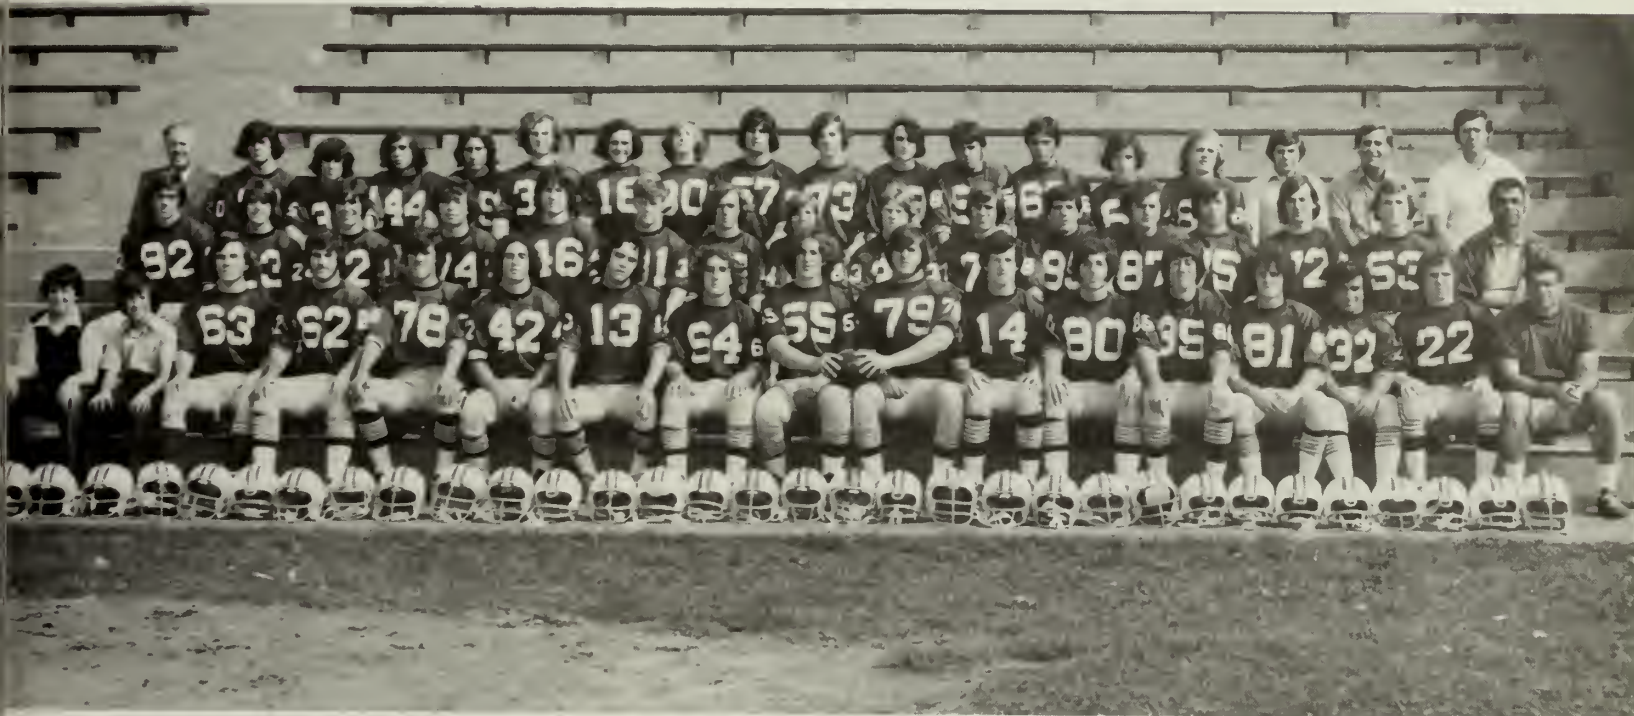

Led by high scorer Jerry Particelli the Spartan offense tallied more goals than any preceding North soccer team.

The team, which had four sophomores and only five returning lettermen, turned in some thrilling efforts, including a 1-1 deadlock with league champions Needham and a 3-0 destruction of crosstown rival South. Included on the team were first string all-stars Jamie Egasti and Lou Papadellis.

All-Star Beling

This year's football team displayed an outstanding enthusiasm that even a 2-8 overall record couldn't diminish. The team was co-captained by seniors Craig Beling and John Gallagher, who exhibited excellent leadership in the fine Spartan tradition. One of the high points of the season was the game with Super Bowl champs Natick, in which the tenacious Spartan defense allowed only ten points before losing 10-6. This was the last season for Head Coach Angie Insalaco, who compiled an overall 48-46-6 record during his coaching career at North High.

The Spartan basketball team finally arrived in '75." Behind Co-Captains Greg Hagopian and Dan Comisky, the Spartans overcame early season losses, playing with their backs to the wall to finish up with an 11-7 record. This made the team eligible for the State Tournament for the first time in North's history.

Center Hagopian averaged 14 points and 13 rebounds per game and was named to the BSL all-star team. Other seniors contributing to the winning effort were Rick Linet, Bob Hedrick, Steve Krasnoff, and Don Fitch. Juniors Dave Alpert, Eric Hill, and Tim McMahon will be the nucleus of next year's Spartan team.

Co-captains Joanie Quinlan and Carol Schirmer helped the basketball team this year to a successful 6-4 season, which included an important win over South. The starting team consisted of Joanie and Carol, and Leslie Knepp, Debbie Wilson, and Les St. George. Joanie Quinlan was voted MVP and was chosen as a BSL all-star.

Due to difficulties, the picture of the freshman team was unable to be taken. However, we recognize the accomplishment of the following girls, who gave the team a final record of 7-2. T. Hegarty, L. Curado, E. Johnson, Y. Nunley, J. Dallamora, L. Knight, D. Mague, J. Church, D. Baum, C. Samra, M. Milette, J. Briss, V. Knepp.

Displaying great talent and determination, the Spartan gymnasts placed second in the Bay State League this year. The team was led by Coach Ted Steeves and captains Jamie Egasti and Ed Brown. Other individuals contributing to the success of the team were junior Cliff DiManno on high bar, and sophomores Mark Flanagan on floor, Paul O'Neil on side horse, and Roger Lunsford on rings. The only loss of the season was to state champs Braintree. The Spartans, being a young team, expect to top Braintree in future seasons.

The wrestling team came on strong at the end of the season, winning 3 of the last 4 meets to even their record at 6-6. The Spartans were in every match and have an excellent team returning. In post season action, North did well, placing four wrestlers in the sectionals. Craig Beling (1st), Greg Allcroft (2nd), Steve Beling (3rd), and John Nolan (4th) all went to the state meet. Craig Beling became North High's second state champ with a 21-0 record.

The Spartan hockey team had a disappointing season, but in spite of its 3-15 BSL record (8-15 overall), there were some bright spots in the season. One of these was the super play of Co-Captain and Goalie Steve Davis. His fantastic net minding skills were rewarded with an All-Star selection from the Bay State League. Co-Captain Kurt Wenzell was the leading scorer for the Spartans; he lit the lamp 6 times and added 12 assists for a total of 18 points.

Another good point was the promising play of the sophomore line of Art Zonghetti, Jim Casey, and Bill McGaughey. These three hockey players will undoubtedly bring two more fine years of hockey for coach George Minarsky.

Mr. Gallagher — Principal

Involvement! More than any other thought I could share with you, involvement has to be the keynote. Your class stayed involved academically, socially, athletically, and in the community at large. This type of education bespeaks the possibilities of acquiring that extra something which exceeds the text book.

Your class has set the pace for others. Your contributions to North High will be emulated by those who come after you. The legacy of involvement does not terminate with Commencement. But rather, it is the touchstone for you and others.

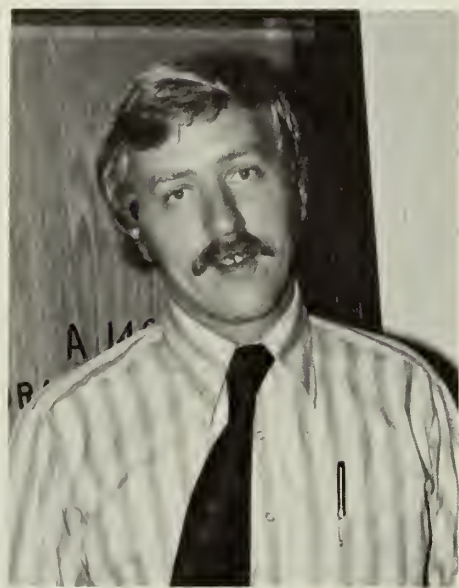

As I review your career at North, I can only conclude that you, as a group, will attain those elusive goals that never come quickly enough. Foundations for those goals are built today, not in all your tomorrows. That which you do now helps construct that framework of success that will surely be yours. Best wishes and Godspeed.

Congratulations to the Class of 1975

We know the sigh of relief that comes at the end of your final exam. Long years of study behind you, and a big wide world ahead.

But even at that it isn't the final test or the end of your learning. The biggest tests still face you in the choice and fulfillment of your life's work. Many plan for college, some must reckon with the armed forces. Others will seek positions in industry, trade, business. We, at Dennison, congratulate you on your past accomplishments; if your future plans call for steady employment or summer work, we'll be glad to discuss your problems with you.

Our Employment Department will welcome the chance to outline opportunities existing in our offices, factory, and warehouse.

We'll make you an offer you can't refuse.

RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS

Take one cup of kindness, add a substantial portion of patience and mix well with the Golden Rule. Put in a generous amount of hard work and determination, along with an equal portion of fair play. Pour into a mold of friendliness and warm with a cheery attitude.

Remove all seeds of hate and sift out irritableness and any old grudges. Trim off self-importance and self depreciation. Cut away indifference, intemperance and fear. Then sprinkle well with faithfulness and love.

If you follow this recipe precisely, you will find it makes life appetizing, satisfying, and easily digestible. Try it.

REFLECTIONS

Time it was,
and oh, what a time it was . . .

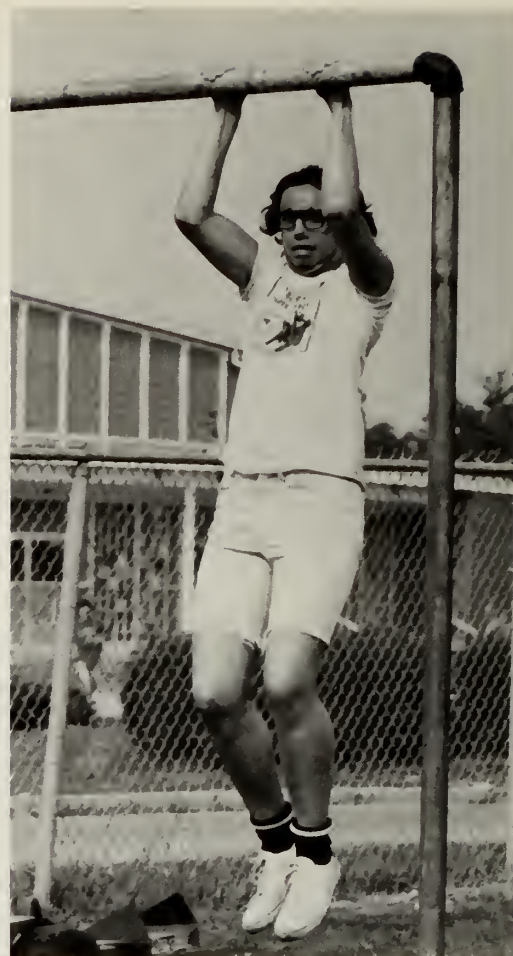

. . . It was a time of innocence,
a time of confidences,
a time of decisions,
a time of becoming
what we chose.

It wasn't always easy . . .

but with help from friends,

determination,

and a little luck . . .

We made it!

Our memories of this time will be a reflection of what we contributed to our school.

Some of us gave of our knowledge, some of our athletic ability . . .

. . . and some gave a much needed smile

. . . And in this sharing we've become so much in so little time.

We approach the future with an awareness of what we are now and a hope for what we will be.

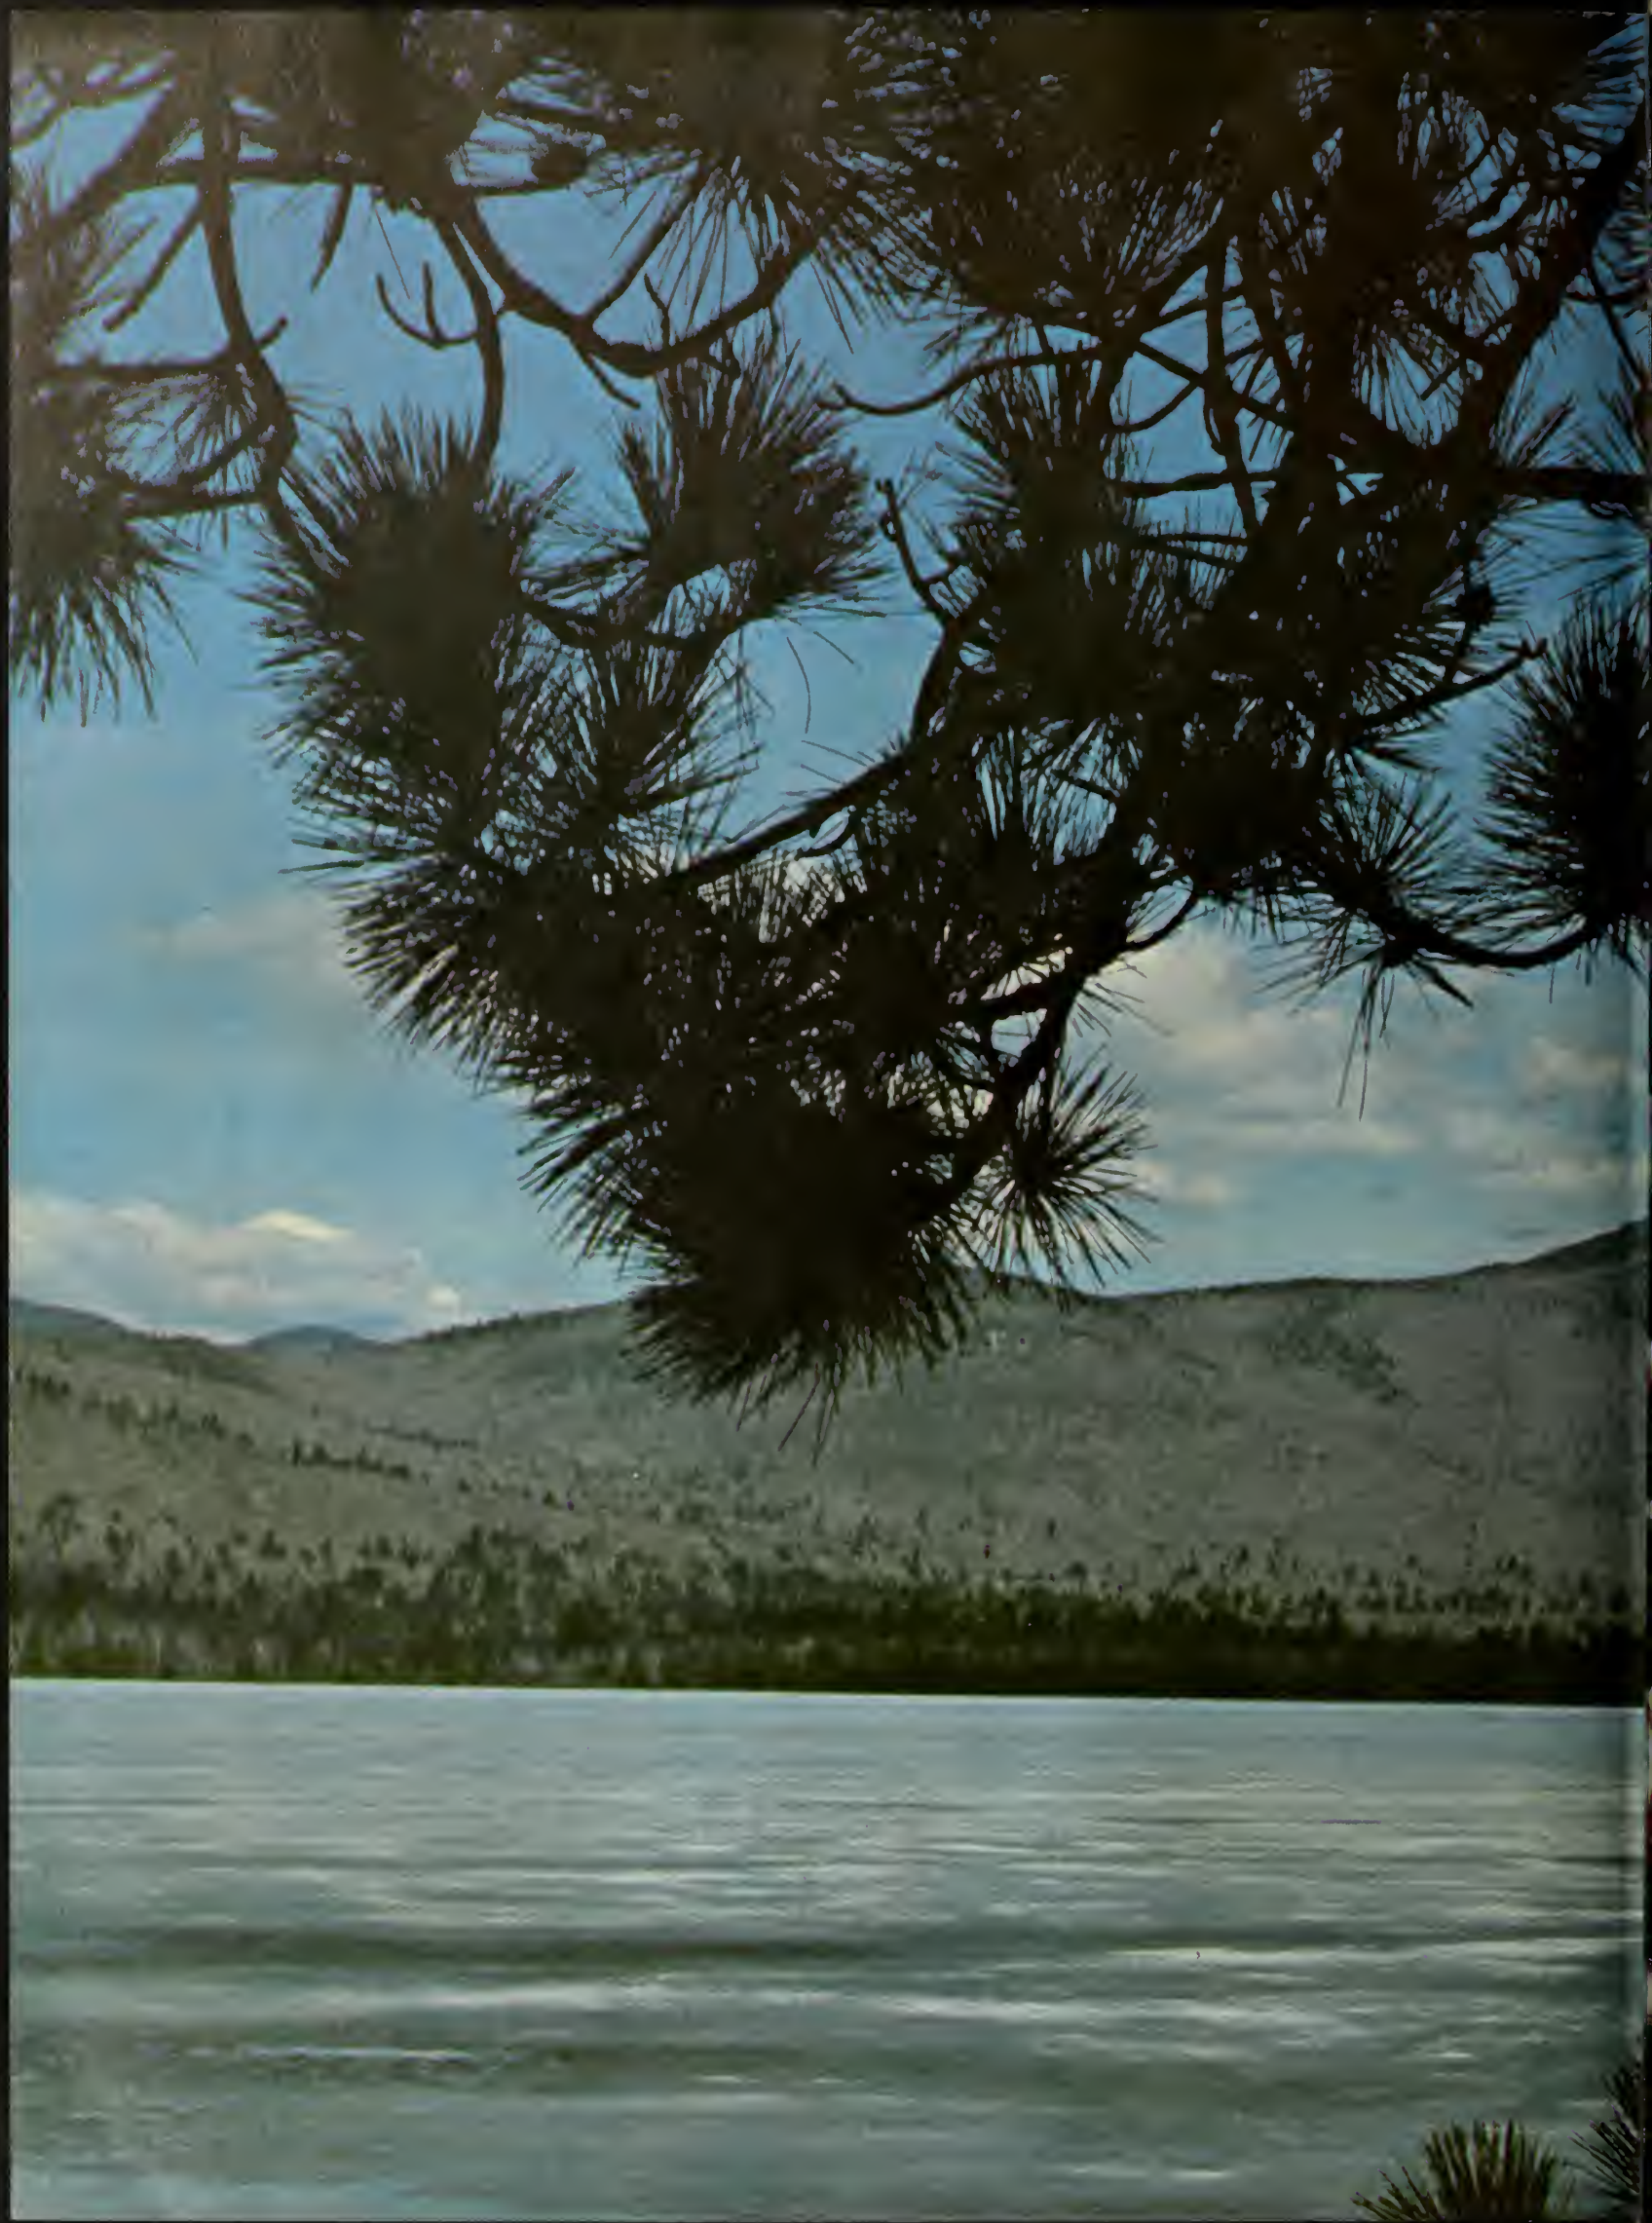

And we leave the past behind with the realization that every end is a new beginning.

the last will and testament

class of '75

In Memory of Carla Kavanuagh - October 29, 1955 - March 12, 1975

We've reached the end—the end of four back-breaking, rewarding, joyous years—the four "best years of our lives." It is said that a man learns from his experiences, lives from the tapestry of his younger days. These days are a mélange of memories; and it is in these memories that we discover the greatest things in life, the things we'll miss the most, the times we'll remember best. What we leave behind will not be forgotten; how could it be when we're leaving.....friends, laughter, childhood.....

1. Nancy Aptt leaves the 500 yd. free style to Mary Savoca.
2. Anne Butterworth leaves her black velvet to M.G.
3. Hebrew I leaves Mrs. Levin one baby-sized dictionary.
4. Randy Papadellis leaves 20 pairs of track shoes to Leo.
5. Karen Sweeney leaves her socks and shoelaces to a worthy junior.
6. A.P. seniors leave Miss McCarthy a period two study.
7. Jodi Sleeper leaves Mr. Kropp two tickets to the junior prom.
8. Rich leaves his golden chariot to anyone who wants it.
9. Joanie leaves her barrett to Karen Dimanno.
10. Period 5 Biology leaves Mrs. Gorfien 30 rats (slightly used).
11. Froggie leaves Rick a toilet plunger.
12. Cheryl, Heidi and Kristin leave all their love to the staph.
13. Kathy Powers doesn't want to leave Mr. Beard at all.
14. Dana H. leaves Jim V. a dime.
15. The seniors leave Marc D'Angelo one stubborn-as-hell mule.....
16. Mike Schiavi leaves the morning announcements to anyone who will listen to them.
17. Lian's club leaves their manes to the Tigers.
18. Lisa Bebergal leaves her brother, Eric, all her cut slips.

19. The seniors leave the Evelyn Wood speed reading course, or any reading course, to Mr. Edmund.
20. Patti Keefe leaves the school nurse some aspirins (cause she never has any).
21. French 44 leaves a bunch of "n'est-ce pas" to Mr. Salvi.
22. Kathi Haynes leaves her heart to Mr. Black.
23. Craig Beling leaves his light bulb to any tough junior.
24. The Spartan leaves Jane Pilsworth a unicorn.
25. Dan Daley leaves this school.....(as soon as he can)
26. Peter Hopkins has already left.
27. Clyde leaves Woof-Woof a dog whistle.
28. To the unfortunate girl athletes the boys leave all their athletic supporters.
29. Pete Rizzy leaves his parking space to Steve Coskie.
30. J.S leaves Terri Supnik an acceptance to C.U. and a real icecream sundae.
31. B.S.L.D.A. leaves their ring tabs to the junior class.
32. M.C. leaves her big feet to Wayne.

.....gym classes, arena scheduling, Mr. Kropp and his red, white, and blue blazer, cafeteria studies, senior pictures.....

33. Neile Miller leaves a year's subscription of the New Yorker to Matt.
34. Jamie leaves his prince outfit and his baby powder to anyone who wants them.
35. Chris Arico leaves her pencils and pens to the junior class.... (sorry, no erasers!)
36. Jon Price leaves women.
37. Bonnie Dyer leaves Lub-Dub to Mrs. Gorfien.
38. Marlies Simmons leaves her European experiences to a Framingham North stuck-in-the-mud.
39. Jeff leaves his watches to his customers.
40. N.K. leaves Miss Terry to J.O.

41. The first period math class leaves a helluva lot of ravioli to Mr. Antonioli.
42. Diane Ablondi leaves her body to science and whoever else wants it.
43. The seniors leave an empty, quiet, blessedly peaceful library and a megaphone to Mrs. Ford.
44. Beth, Mary, Leslie, Robin, and Marjie leave project harrassment to the junior class.
45. Helle leaves her heartfelt sympathies to the next A.F.S. student.
46. Anne Butterworth leaves her heartfelt sympathies to the next A.F.S. host-family.

....morning announcements, variety shows, class officers, winning teams, 12:30 to 5:30 days.....

47. Steve Krasnoff leaves nothing in the class will... (he's taking it all with him).
48. Calculus A.P. leaves Mr. Hannigan a cute delta.
49. Jim Adams leaves his stereo system to Mike Klein.
50. Jennifer leaves Mr. Bertucci all the glassware that she broke.
51. Anonymous leaves Miss McCarthy a plane ticket to Canterbury, England.
52. Matt P. leaves Bill Brody an honor society... (good luck, Bill!)
53. C.B. and T.S. leave Heard Pond to the sophomore girls.
54. Period 7 current popular lit. leaves Mr. Fortier a copy of Serpico.
55. Robin Raphaelian and Kathi Hellstrom leave Mrs. Leonard a year's supply of monarch notes for next year's Shakespeare class.
56. [REDACTED]
57. K.H. leaves an EKG and a soap-on-the-rope to Mr. Platt.
58. Cathy and Mary leave the T.O.Y. award to Mr. O'Brien.
59. Robin L. leaves all her thoughts of plants to Mrs. Vincuilla.
60. Mike Morse leaves to Mr. Dargan a Brine LaCrosse stick and a winning baseball season.
61. Denise leaves her false teeth to Steve C.

Pale blue light green roadmap
Little town circled in red Distance distorted by time.

Bide your time
Spend your time
Waste your time
Passing time
Flying time.

L'temps passe vite.
All for a moment
Minutes in reality
Eternity in memory.

Jane Pilsworth

Equinox

I caught a cobweb in my hands
When it went floating by the silver sun blazed burning rings
And singed the milk-blue sky
A silver star, bright burning disk that someone tossed too high.

A lady sat with sunset hair
Dark brown lit up to gold
She whispered stories to the wind that men had never told Her eyes were deep as autumn nights
Young wise but always old.

A thousand fractured idols lay mossy on the ground Dreams and reams offallen leaves
Rustled all around Frosted light reflected them while the silver sun sank down.

(marj)

62. Carol leaves her dirty books to Mr. Beard.
63. Laurie Reynolds leaves with railroad tracks.
64. Mike leaves Nancy's giggle to Mr. Kropp.
65. Caren leaves Chris a one-way ticket to crazy.
66. Joanne Glazer leaves her "birthday" job to next year's lucky candidate.
67. Bonnie, Jean, and Brenda leave Mr. Salvi a box of broken letters.
68. Mr. Duddy's period 3 physics class leaves him a pair of clip leads.
69. Mike and Greg leave to Patty and Joyce two Hunky men from Framingham State.
70. Ben leaves a bag of peanuts to the elephant.
71. Lois D. leaves his coolness to anyone who can handle it.
72. R.R. leaves his football shirt to anyone who wishes to be a bench warmer.
73. Kathie Graham leaves Jeff Blitz her thumbs and her baby brother a new red hat.
74. Jelly Bean leaves Mr. White her hat because he knows fine art when he sees it and besides, he asked for it.

....special teachers, rallies, library gatherings,
Jim Morris' imitations, proms, snow days.....

75. SENIORS LEAVE ALL THEIR MONEY TO THE COLLEGE OF THEIR CHOICE.
76. The guys leave Rich Goff's body to the women of the world.
77. Steve R. leaves a mean green Pinto in his garage.
78. Karen Lipshires leaves Mrs. Seymour one small sausage pizza and a book of dirty jokes.
79. Claire and Deb leave "your Jamie or mine."
80. The A.P. calculus class leaves a cute, gorgeous, nice, and exciting book that only cost a quarter to Mr. Hannigan.
81. The Senior Donkey Riders leave to Bill Bove and Ed Palmer everything they cleaned-up at the Donkey Hockey Game.

The world is endlessly
two sided an eternal continuation which witnessed only on cloudy days and quarter moons'
nights,
moss bottom streams and wild geese flights all reveal nature's design to continue the rhythm an rhyme of the moving earth.

On Signing Your Yearbook

Where are the words which form the good-bye song to be engraved along the dotted lines of memory?
How to create the farewell note to be woven between the binding threads of high school days, and how to evoke the good-luck-always charm,
to carve a lasting tribute upon the sheets?

My ink blacks and wavers
along the colors of your open book
As I compose the denouement, the brilliant good-bye song with words I do not know.

Terri Supnik

Can it all have gone away
Leaving thoughts in each and one
That time had not begun to stay
Long enough and then undone

If all is meant to pass away
Into a time when only books
And rhymes and such as these can say
"How he talks" and "how she looks"
Then,
Again it calls "come away".
Continue out- matriculate
Is not the year gone from the day
Are not the dreams but lost to fate?

A Recollection

Memories of childhood days, flood my mind like so many waves.
Happy days and sad,
some were good days, some were bad
But all are memories of childhood days.

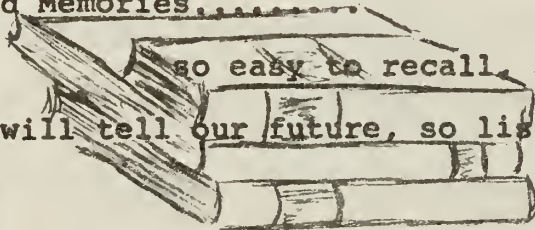

The laughter of children playing,
the yells, the screams, the shouts.
The security of friendship,
no consequence no doubts.

Silly private jokes, so important once, never lost their meanings, never lost their touch.

Childhood Memories.....

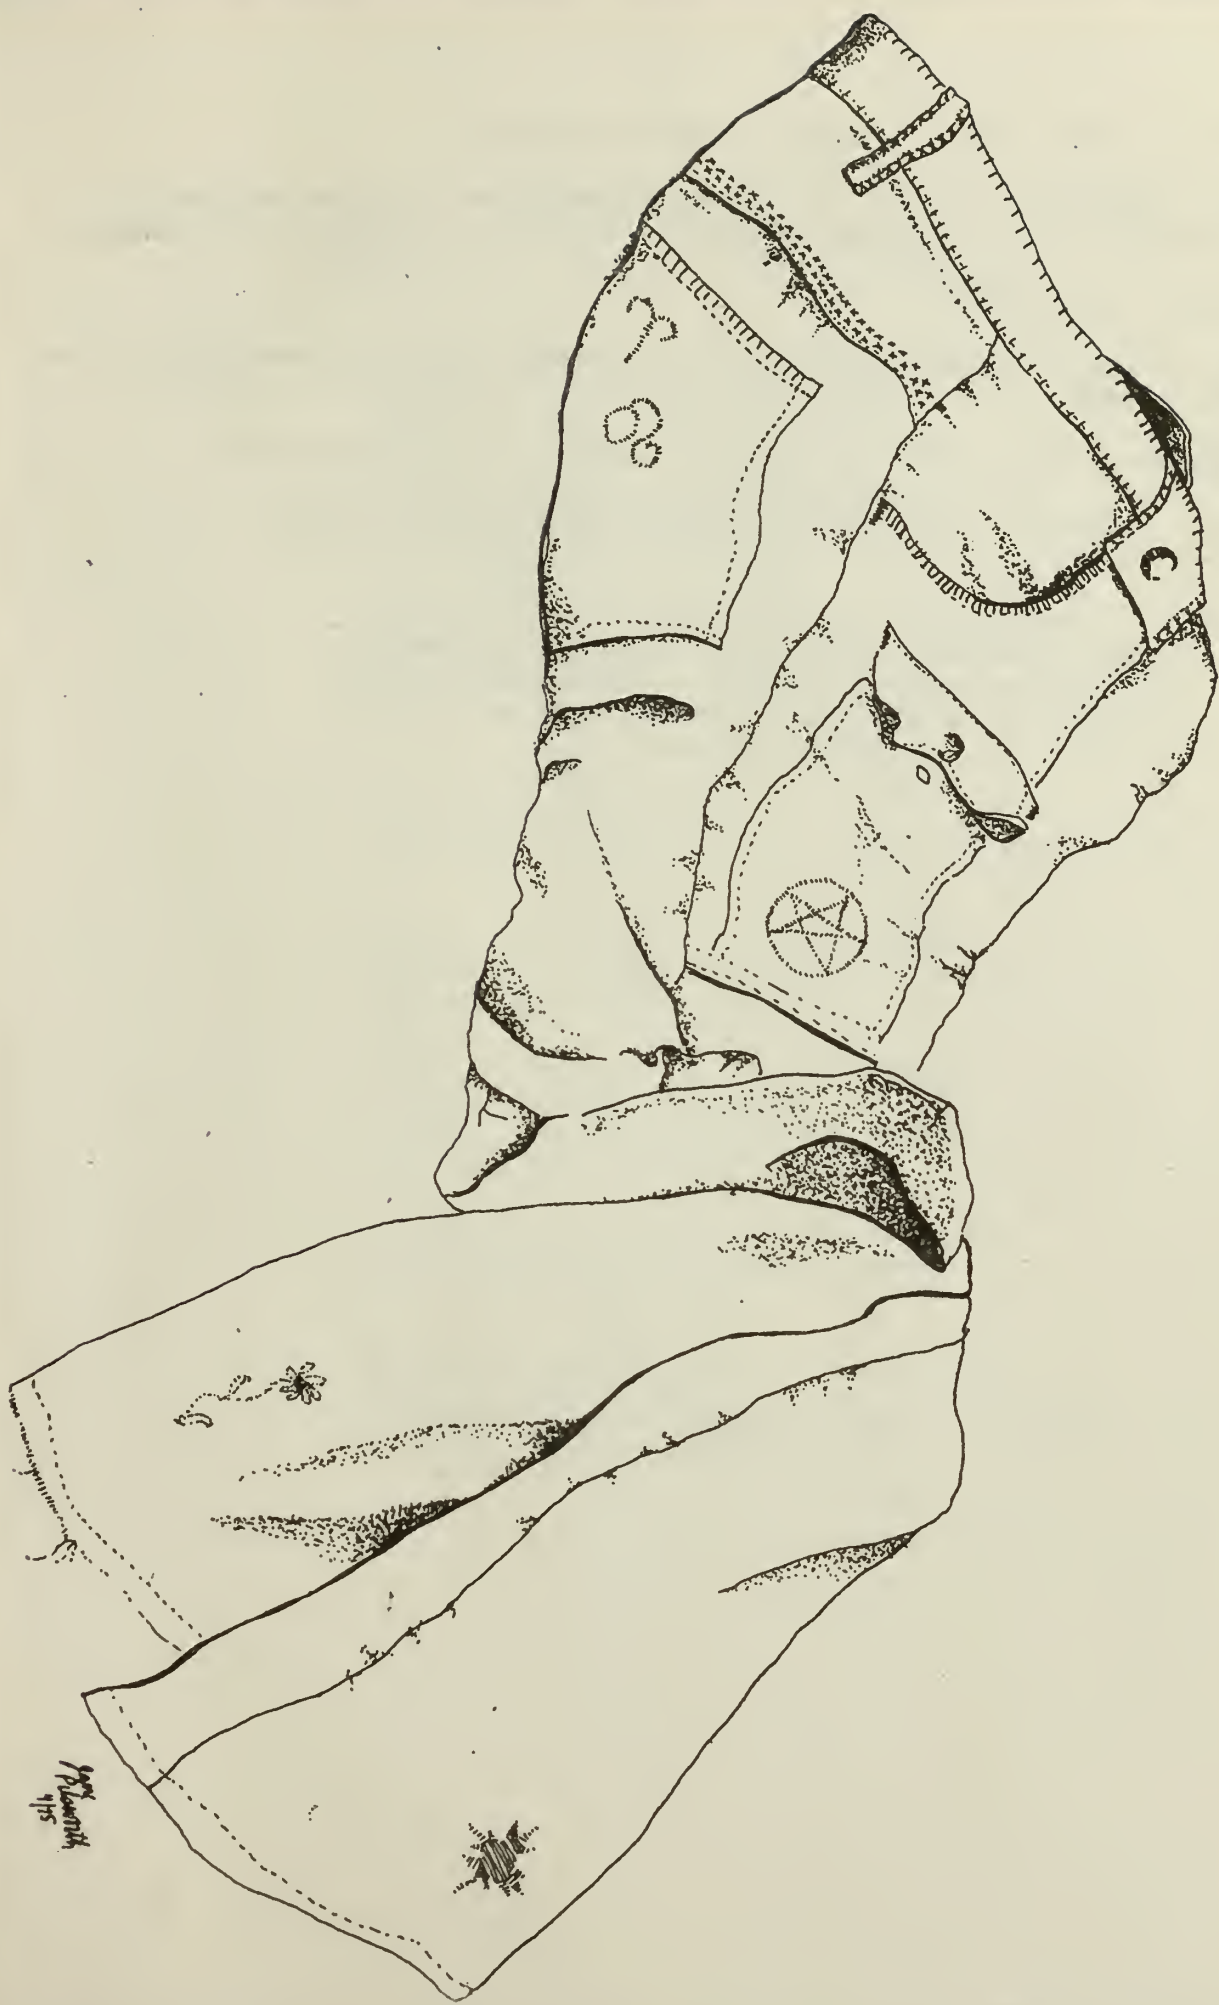

so easy to recall, so wonderful to tell,
As then will tell our future, so listen to them well.

Class History

(sung to the tune of Swanee River)

Way back in 1971, long long ago,
600 shy and nervous freshmen came for the four year show.

How we cowered in the hallways-wondering who was who
Mr. Kropp, and teachers, seniors, long days, made school hours blue.

Way back in 1972, long long ago,
600 domineering sophomores were now the freshmen's woe.

How we worked at being rotten-
P.M. kings and queens
But Mom's apron strings were not forgotten, still we were green pre-teens.

Way back in 1973, long long ago,
600 crazy, headstrong juniors waited for seniors to go.

How they worked us to the bone-and kept us on our toes
Now that we are almost on our own,
Our hard work really shows.

Way back in 1974, not so long ago, 600 tired but brilliant seniors turned out MAGNIFICO!

How we yearned to see the year end-counting every day
Now each passing minute makes our hearts rend,
We wish that we could stay.

The Reading of the Will

One by one they came, all came, all to receive their share of his riches. The hall filled with the softspoken conversations of the heirs. What will he leave me? I hope it's...No, he'll leave that to her, remember how he loved to watch her smile into it's shiny surface? Oh, yes, of course. I remember. Then perhaps that other...Oh, that was priceless, he always kept that locked up.. I remember when he would let me hold it as a child he liked to watch me gazing at it in awe. It was worth so much money, but he'd always let me hold it, so fragile and expensive....He certainly was a rich man, I wonder what he left me...I remember how whenever we would break anything he'd laugh at our tears and say it wasn't important. He must have been a rich man if he was not upset by all the expensive things we broke in our play. But he loved to watch us play, he'd always join us. Yes, I remember. But what will he leave me now that he's gone?

On and on it went, the endless trading of happy remembrances of the old man, the rich old man who always smiled when he saw the children, always had a piece of candy or a little gift for them, loved the children as his own. Now he was gone. He had left them all behind and now, only now would they find out how rich he really was.

He was always so generous when he was alive...Do you remember how he used to carry me around the yard on his shoulders, around and around until we both fell down laughing and dizzy? Yes, I remember, he always loved the days when we would come over to his house to play. Surely he'll leave me something worthwhile...I hope I get...Remember that old pocket watch he had...Yes, I'd like that...Remember how he used to hide it, and we had to find it by it's sound? Oh, yes, and remember how he'd have other little toys and such hidden that we would find while looking for the watch? He was such a sweet old man, do you remember? I'll never forget. Now he's gone. I wonder what he left me?

Then a hush fell over the hall as a door opened; out stepped a man, dressed in black and carrying a single piece of paper. He was the reader of the will. In the silence the minds still raced. What will I...I hope it's...Do you remember that....Will it be priceless? Everyone took a seat. The reader surveyed his audience, looking at them all but at none directly. Glancing down at the document, he began to read.

"From you all I leave regretfully, and as I leave I leave all I have, and all I have to leave are the memories."

The reader rose wordlessly. With a slight bow, he turned and left the room. Silence once more gripped the room. No one could speak a word. They looked at each other, understanding. Of course! One by one they rose, left the hall, each knowing they were far richer now than when they had come.

Matt Publicover

too few yesterdays that we have sunk in delight. too few smiles have passed before us that we, eager, bestow a friendly

guise.
now confused, in this, we seek each other.....
in this glory at the top.

"WE" have made it, did we not think it possible?

"WE" reign, do we not act like kings?

"WE" cry!- in all our still splendor we flounder happily in child's play.

Tomorrow's gift will only last forever.....

OUR time is not up
it has begun

Cast it about you.....

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Natures first green is gold
Her hardest hue to hold
Her early leafs a flower
But only so an hour
Then leaf subsides to leaf
So Eden sank to grief
As dawn goes down to day
Nothing gold can stay
